

Cleveland Cornhole Team Bash II!

Cleveland, OH – February 1, 2014

Mulberry's – 2316 Mulberry Ave, Cleveland, OH 44113

This event features not only teams of 4 players, but two divisions, so start forming your team now!

Each team will consist of 4 players. You decide who is on your team, however, "Premier" players may only play in the Division I tournament and each team of 4 can have a MAXIMUM of 2 "Premier" players on it.

So how do you know who is classified as "Premier"?

Here is a link to the password protected page with the list of Premier players in Northeast Ohio <http://clevelandcornhole.com/premier-players/>. The password to the page is Premier2013. If you are coming from out of town please contact me to discuss if your 4-player team passes the no 2 premier player rule (since non-NEO players are not listed on the Premier list).

Time – Doors will open at 11am, games begin around noon. Please note that this event is a full day event since we are basically running 3 tournaments on one day. Each player will be guaranteed 6 games and probably MUCH more, so there will be a ton of cornhole played. I believe at the first bash everyone played 9 games or more!

Format:

- All 3 tournaments are "CornholeBlogger format", aka Holebrid in that they are double elimination (single games), but once you lose the best you can finish is in 3rd place in that particular bracket. This is being done due to time constraints. Also, each division will always compete separately.
- First up is the 4-man team competition. 4-player teams compete in a tournament as a team. 2 players from your team stand at one board and the other 2 players stand at the other board. Players will then pitch 2 bags per inning, rotating bags (first player on the team will throw the first and third bag while the second player would throw the second and fourth bag).
- Next is the doubles competition. Each 4-player team splits up however they want into two 2-player teams. Each two-player team is randomly placed into 1 of 2 brackets (each bracket has one doubles team per 4-player team)
- Finally is the singles competition. Each player is randomly placed into 1 of 4 brackets (each bracket has one player from each 4-player team)

Scoring:

- Scoring is based on the number of teams that enter each division.
- Example: Eight teams enter Division 1. Then each tournament bracket would be worth a maximum of 11 points per team to the winner. Each bracket would award 11 points for 1st, 9 for 2nd, 7 for 3rd, 5 for 4th, 4 for 5th, 3 for 6th, 2 for 7th and 1 for 8th. For singles the points would be a straight 8/7/6/5/4/3/2/1. Then you total each teams total points together to determine an overall winner.

Entry Fee's

Division I - $100/team or $25/player

Division II - $60/team or $15/player (you may want to contact me to confirm you can play in Div II, it will be divided the same way as we have divided for previous events)

Prizes – 80+% overall payout in each Division!!!
