Classifications

A panel of Northeast Ohio players have reviewed and discussed the list of 400+ players in our area to determine how they should be classified. For those of you who currently play (or have played in the past) in the Cleveland Cornhole league on Monday or Thursday nights, you were classified based on the division you participated in (for the most part). If you are NOT listed, please contact Dave Weiser to discuss which division you should be placed in. Note that Division V is for true Social players.

Please know that the goal of classifying players is to give players a chance to compete in a tournament by playing against players of similar skill level. We understand that players could be classified incorrectly and if that is the case, then those players can be moved up (or down) based on how they perform at this event. All I can say is many hours were spent on doing our best to put players where we felt they should be. Some players are very much "on the bubble" and could have easily been moved up or down, but we have to start somewhere... NOTE THAT PLAYERS CAN ALWAYS PLAY HIGHER THAN THEIR LISTED CLASSIFICATION IF THEY WISH!!

To see a list of all 400+ classified players you can go to <http://www.clevelandcornhole.com/player-classifications/>

For doubles a D1 player may play with a D3 player in the D2 Division. Another example is a D2 player can play with a D4 player in the D3 division. If the two players are just one division apart, they must play in the higher division. For instance if a D1 player plays with a D2 player, they must play in D1. Premier players must play in the Premier division for doubles.

IMPORTANT – If you feel you are not classified correctly OR you are not on the list, but would like to attend this event, please contact me so that we can discuss. I would prefer not to have someone show up to this event who is not on the list without talking to them first and hopefully meeting with them to see how good of a player they might be so that we can make an educated decision as to where they should be classified. If you are listed and do not want to be listed, please let me know and I will remove you.
